

Year 1 Geography- Comparing the UK and Kenya

| Key Vocabulary | |
|----------------------------|--|
| continent | A land mass that contains countries. There are 7 continents in the world. |
| Europe | The continent that the United Kingdom belongs to. |
| Africa | A large continent that Kenya is part of. |
| Atlantic Ocean | A large ocean that borders parts of Europe, Africa, North America and South America. |
| Northern Hemisphere | The Northern half of the world that is above the Equator. |
| Southern Hemisphere | The Southern half of the world that is below the Equator. |
| Equator | The mid-point around the world that gets the most of the Sun's heat and light. |
| climate | What the weather is like over a long period of time. |
| weather | What it is like outside each day. Eg raining, sunny, windy, cold/hot |
| human feature | Feature of a place that have been made by humans. Eg town, port, farm, city |
| physical feature | Feature of a place that would be there even if there were no people. E.g seas, mountains, rivers, lakes. |
| capital city | Usually the largest city in a country and is where the rulers are. |

